Administrative Capacity Development Programme (ACDP) 2023. DR. B. C. ROY ENGINEERING COLLEGE (BCREC). DURGAPUR.

BROCHURE: BCREC ACDP 2022-23 (PFL 2023)

Introduction: In recent years, Financial Literacy has gained attention worldwide. Interested groups including policy-makers are concerned about the lack of knowledge of people regarding basic financial concepts. It has been observed that people do not have the proper tool to take financial decisions that is imperative for economic well-being. Financial literacy is the ability to manage one's money in an effective way where ineffective money management can lead to vulnerable to severe financial crisis. It is a skill set that includes budgeting, managing expenses, savings, and debts, and understanding risk-return trade-offs in investment. A strong foundation of these skills will help to achieve various goals like retirement assistance, spending on educational and medical expenses, and meeting other future contingencies.

Objective: To create financial awareness, helping people understand basic financial concepts that will help them manage money in a better way.
