Dear sir/madam,

Subject : National Entrepreneurship Award - 2017

Greetings from Tata Institute of Social Sciences (TISS), Mumbai.

The Ministry of Skill Development and Entrepreneurship, Government of India has instituted National Entrepreneurship Award (in 2016). We, the Tata Institute of Social Sciences, Mumbai, are the Lead Partner for the 2017 Award, working with six other reputed partner institutes (IITD, IITM, IITB, IITK, IIMA and XLRI) to implement the Award process. The Award will not only recognise young entrepreneurs (17 Awards in different categories), individuals and institutions (6 Awards) contributing to eco-system building but also aims to serve the purpose is to create an encouraging environment for entrepreneurship in India.

To disseminate this information we propose to organise Road Shows at reputed institutions and organisations at various places. In this regard, I along with my colleagues wish to visit your institute and host a Road Show event (for about 90 minutes) on August 03, 2017 - Thursday. In specific we intend to meet the various stakeholders of entrepreneurship - entrepreneurs, incubators, industry associations, other professional bodies of entrepreneurship support organisations, investor groups, mentors, educational institutions teaching entrepreneurship, NGOs associated in this space, banks, financial institutions, government officials and rural organisations working on entrepreneurship related aspects and other support groups working in the Durgapur - Asansol Region of West Bengal.

The Award Application Portal www.neas.gov.in will open soon and would remain open for 45 days.

We will be thankful if your institute provides the necessary logistics support and network.

Thanking you,

Satyajit Majumdar,
Professor and Chairperson,
Centre for Social Entrepreneurship,
School of Management and Labour Studies
